cupboard space and a breakfast bar. There is also a separate dining space with polished floor boards that opens to the rear yard. Adjoining the dining space is a light filled living room with polished boards, views of the front and rear gardens, gas heating and air-conditioning.

Externally, the property really shines. The manicured gardens at the front create street appeal, privacy and serenity whilst the rear gardens are designed in a beautiful Japanese theme. The gardens are teamed with a fantastic undercover decking with bench seating. Creating the ideal space for entertaining on warm nights.

A single carport with roller door and oversized garden shed provide security and a place for storage.
